Re Summer Table Tennis Clinic – Partnership with Sports & Arts In Schools Foundation

Dear Parent:

We are pleased to inform you that we have for the 7th consecutive year, partnered with Sports & Arts in Schools Foundation, to run an organized, skills based, fun, engaging, summer table tennis clinic at Public School 126, 80 Catherine Street, New York, NY 10038. This program will be offered FREE of charge.

If your child is keen on playing more table tennis, we recommend he/she play participate in this program, for one, week, two weeks or for the entire program.

American Youth Table Tennis (AYTTO) is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to teaching the Olympic Sport of Table Tennis and life skills to New York City school children. We organize a middle school league, of which Wagner is a participating school. Our organization, was instrumental in adding table tennis to the list of Official Varsity High School Sports for the New York City Public Schools.

Sports & Arts in Schools Foundation, is a major New York City Not for Profit Organization, that provides comprehensive after school and summer programs for thousands of New York City youth. More information on (SASF), including a list of other summer programs can be found at www.sasfny.org

Should you have any other questions, about the summer table tennis program, do not hesitate to email us at coach@aytto.org, bennisbet@aytto.org or email or text us at 917-686-1911.

Sincerely'

Ben Nisbet – Director.
